

AARHUS FESTIVAL

REFERENCE

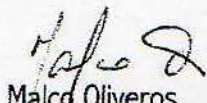

To whom it might concern:

The Senegalese dance company LIONS OF AFRICA participated in the 2007 edition of the Aarhus Festival, Denmark, which took place in the period 29th August – 9th September 2007.

The company captivated the Danish audience with its amazingly energetic and colorful show, based in the reach artistic and cultural heritage of their country of origin.

The Aarhus Festival has been greatly pleased of having had the opportunity to present the company to it's audience, and would not hesitate in giving its warmest recommendations, to any festival or venue that considers the possibility to work with the above named company.
